ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PARK DEPARTMENT

FOR THE

YEAR ENDING JANUARY 31, 1922.

Boston, January 31, 1922.

Hon. Andrew J. Peters,
Mayor of Boston:

Dear Sir,— The Park and Recreation Commission herewith submit the annual report for the year ending January 31, 1922.

The real problem confronting the department today is the condition of the road surfaces on the main parkways, Commonwealth avenue and the parkway leading to Forest Hills. These parkways are used so much by automobiles coming from neighboring towns to the city that they are very much worn and only the best method of surfacing should be used.

The pavement laid some years ago on Columbia road and a similar surface laid on Commonwealth avenue, between Arlington street and Beacon street, near the junction of Brookline avenue, have proved very satisfactory, and it is to be hoped that sufficient funds can be obtained the next two years to carry out this line of pavement.

There is an urgent demand for the extension of the golf links at Franklin Park, and sufficient funds should be arranged for this purpose.

The development of existing playgrounds should be arranged for and the Board feels that money for this purpose would be better expended than in the purchase of new playground areas.

Very respectfully yours,

James B. Shea, Chairman.
Charles A. Coolidge,
James E. McConnell,
Commissioners.

REPORT OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER.

PARK DEPARTMENT,
33 BEACON STREET, BOSTON 9, January 31, 1922.

To the Board of Park Commissioners, City of Boston:

DEAR SIRS,— I respectfully beg leave to submit a report of work performed under the direction of your Board during the year 1921.

BOSTON COMMON.

On account of the abandoning of the war camp huts on Boston Common, it was necessary to reloam and grade a considerable area extending from Park street to Boylston street, and a contract was given for the loaming and grading of that area. The amount of this contract was $12,118. Considerable planting of young trees was done during the year to carry out the former plan of tree planting as outlined by the commission.

On account of the great number of people being interested in the noon-day concerts held at the Parkman Bandstand, it was deemed advisable to provide additional seating capacity. A contract was let to provide for 2,000 feet of seats. The amount of this contract was $12,455.

For a number of years the ball field on Boston Common has been unplayable. It has been repeatedly studied by the landscape architect and the members of the commission. The latest plan of Mr. A. A. Shurtleff was accepted by this commission and a contract was advertised and let to regrade the ball field, raise the Charles street mall and put additional concrete walks on the Common. The amount of this contract was $55,660.

PUBLIC GARDEN.

During the winter months a number of trees were moved and planted in different locations; a large amount of shrubbery and tree planting was done in the spring. The usual summer bedding and fall planting of bulbs took place. During the year a new flag pole, to commemorate the men who died in the World War, was erected. This pole, the largest single stick in the city, was of Oregon pine. The cost of same was $990.

Fens.

The contract for resurfacing macadam road, bituminous pavement, between Gaston square and Peterborough street, was let, amounting to $28,784.25.

A change at the Westland avenue entrance, which has always been a very dangerous place, has been made. It necessitated the relocating of the entrance roads and eliminating the dangerous corner. The contract was let, amounting to $16,032.75.

Considerable improvement was made around the Burns statue, calling for a relocation of walk on account of the erection of same. Contract was let, amounting to $1,100.

A large amount of material was received from the Sanitary Division for the North Meadow.

Olmsted Park.

The roadway between Huntington avenue and Willow Pond road was resurfaced with a bituminous surface. Contract was let, amounting to $29,290.90.

Franklin Park.

A large amount of work was started and completed in Franklin Park during the past year. The Greeting was extended and completed as far as the Elephant House. A contract was let to the amount of $3,850. In the Zoological Garden it was necessary to place permanent walks, sewer and water pipe; contract was given for same, amounting to $7,668.75. The new Lion House, started during the year 1920, was completed on January 11, 1921, at a cost of $61,335. At the Refectory Building the large retaining wall was in a dangerous condition. Contract was given for the rebuilding of same and work was completed in December, 1920, at a cost of $2,526. This building, which has been sadly in need of repair for a number of years, was entirely renovated during the year 1921. Contract was given early in July and work was completed on November 1, at a cost of $12,860. The work of restoring Ellicott Cottage, which was destroyed by fire, was finished May 1. The amount of the contract was $10,450. The rear entrance to the Refectory Building

Permanent seats were placed on McConnell Park and Gibson Street Playground for the use of the spectators at the various ball games.

At Edward Everett square and Richardson square there have been two very dangerous corners at street intersections; contract was given and the work was started in August, 1920, finished in September. The amount of the contract was $1,802.75. The work consisted of the rearrangement of lights, widening of the roadway and removing dangerous curbing at park.

WEST ROXBURY.

The large area of land purchased at the corner of Ashland and South streets has been named the Irving W. Adams Park. The contract for grading and concrete work was started on October 22, 1920, and completed May 1, 1921. The amount of this contract was $16,910.

Land was taken for playground purposes at Mozart street which was developed during the year 1920; contract was given for grading, drainage and building retaining wall which will permit of the enlarging of the playground surface work; work was started August 16 and completed September 25, 1920 — $9,195.

The old iron fence surrounding Thomas Park, which has been disintegrating for a number of years, was entirely rebuilt; contract was started on May 1 and completed June 16, amounting to $1,840.50.

At Marine Park the Head House was added to and completely altered. This work consisted of a new bathhouse and new pier; work was started September 29, 1920, and completed for the bathing season in June, at a cost of $133,675.

Charlestown.

A contract was given for the construction of wooden lockers at the Dewey Beach bathhouse to take the place of the former metal lockers which were in a dilapidated and unsafe condition, due to the salt air. Work was started May 22, 1920, and finished June 15, 1920, and amounted to $3,990.

A contract was also given for a new roof on the Charlestown Heights building. Work was started August 11 and completed October 22; it cost $4,771.

The contract was given and work was started on July 21 and finished on December 16. The amount of the contract was $5,465.70.

CITY GREENHOUSES.

The new greenhouses were added to by the construction of a storage shed; the grounds were graded and the walks and drives were improved, and the buildings are now housing the entire plants of the cemetery and park divisions.

BEACHES.

The various beaches throughout the city were sanded early in the spring. A great many repairs were needed on the L Street building, also at North End Park building.

On account of the extremely hot season during the summer months, the beaches were heavily patronized. Not a single life was lost on any of the beaches under the jurisdiction of this department.

Gymnasia.

The activities in the gymnasia which were seriously interfered with on account of the buildings being occupied by the State Guards, also on account of the coal shortage, were renewed and the large classes were again on regular schedule. The curriculum has been added to and it is expected that in another year the gymnasia will be as well patronized as ever.

Moth and Tree Division.

The force was added to and subdivided so that each gang had a suburb of the city to take care of. The systematic planting of trees was continued during the year, and the list of estates infested was taken; these places were cleaned or sprayed by the moth force during the year.

Band Concerts.

Over one hundred band concerts were held during the summer months at the following places: Boston Common, Marine Park, Franklin Park and Jamaica Pond. The noon concerts were continued at the Parkman Bandstand and were very well patronized.

Zoological Garden and Aquarium.

Zoo.— Another building was added in the ranges for the protection of the sacred cows, kangaroos, llamas and deer, which makes a very welcome change, both to the looks of the place and the benefit of the animals. A large number of new exhibits were added to the Zoo, particularly in the Bird House. One of the most important acquisitions to the Zoo during the year 1920 was a pair of beautiful leopards. The acquisitions have been large, owing to the great many donations and the losses have been very small. The completion of the Lion House was a great addition to the Zoo and its sanitation is as near perfect as it is possible to get same. Work has been started on the building of outside cages, which we expect will be completed during the ensuing year.

Aquarium.— Changes were made in the basement of the Aquarium which permitted the construction of shower baths and toilets for the benefit of the public using the tennis courts in the Aquarium grounds.

During the year 125 varieties of mammals, fishes, reptiles and invertebrates were shown. At the present time there are 477 specimens on exhibition representing 48 varieties. Considerable trouble was experienced during the year with gas disease among the marine fishes. In August the salt water in the big storage tank was replenished by 160,000 gallons brought down from the harbor by water boat. This quantity was needed to replace the losses by leakage and evaporation. In conjunction with the New York and Philadelphia aquariums, a collecting trip was made to Key West, Florida. The receipts were not as large as hoped for. However, the trip added to the exhibit of tropical marine fishes. More or less trouble has been experienced recently with fungus on the fresh water fishes. It is hoped that this will be overcome in the near future.

CEMETERY DIVISION.

A large amount of work in the laying out of walks, drives and in the planting of evergreens was done in the old Cemetery Department which was consolidated with the Park Department on November 11, 1920. The house formerly used by the superintendent was destroyed by fire of an incendiary origin. A new wrought-iron fence was erected on the boundary lines of Paine and Canterbury streets; the work was finished March 1, 1921. The amount of the contract was $20,040.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM P. LONG,
Deputy Commissioner.
